

Privacy Policy — Scripture du Jour

Last updated: August 22, 2025

Scripture du Jour (“the App”) respects your privacy. This policy explains what data we collect, how it is used, and your choices.

Information We Collect

1. Account Information

- When you sign in with Apple, we receive a unique identifier and, if you allow, your email address (often via Apple’s private relay service).
- This is used only to manage your account in the App.

2. Subscription & Purchases

- The App uses Apple’s In-App Purchase system for subscriptions.
- We receive confirmation of your purchase and subscription status from Apple to unlock premium features.
- We do not store your credit card or payment details. Apple handles all transactions.

3. App Data

- We store minimal settings on your device, such as theme preference, trial start date, and whether you are premium.
 - These are saved locally on your device and not shared with us.

How We Use Your Information

- To provide access to scripture content and premium features.
- To determine subscription status (trial, monthly, or yearly).
- To manage your sign-in and account.

We do not:

- Sell your data.
 - Use your data for advertising or tracking across apps.
 - Collect sensitive personal information.

Data Sharing

- We do not share your personal information with third parties.
 - Apple may process purchase and account information as required for In-App Purchases and Sign in with Apple.

Your Choices

- You can manage or revoke Sign in with Apple access in your device settings.
 - You can cancel or manage your subscription anytime in your App Store account.
 - You may delete the App at any time to remove locally stored data.

Children's Privacy

Scripture du Jour is suitable for all ages and does not knowingly collect personal data from children beyond what is handled by Apple's sign-in and purchase systems.
